

BROCKTON DAILY ENTERPRISE-
WEDNESDAY, MARCH 12, 1969

OLD COLONY MEMORIAL, Plymouth, Mass.

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1969

NEW EXHIBIT TO OPEN

The works of seven prominent contemporary artists will be displayed in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library, in an exhibition opening Sunday afternoon, March 16, from 3 to 5 and continuing through April 12.

The exhibition includes a watercolor by Bernard Chaet, a sculpture by Marianna Pineda, a portrait by Barbara Swan, and an Elbert Weinberg sculpture. Three members of the faculty of the School of Fine and Applied Arts of Boston University will be featured also, with drawings and paintings by Jack Kramer, drawings and sculpture by Lloyd Lillie, and watercolors and drawings by Iso Papo.

The works of Chaet, Pineda, Swan and Weinberg are being shown through the courtesy of the Alpha Gallery, Boston, and the works of Kramer and Lillie through the courtesy of the Boris Mirski Gallery, Boston.

The Helen Bumpus Gallery is open during the regular library hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday from 10 to 8; Thursday 10 to 8; Saturday 10 to 6. The public is invited to meet the artists at the opening Sunday.

LIBRARY ART EXHIBIT

The works of seven prominent contemporary artists will be displayed in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library, in an exhibition opening Sunday afternoon, March 16, from 3-5 and continuing through April 12.

The exhibition includes a watercolor by Bernard Chaet, a sculpture by Marianna Pineda, a portrait by Barbara Swan, and an Elbert Weinberg sculpture. Three members of the faculty of the School of Fine and Applied Arts of Boston University will be featured also, with drawings and paintings by Jack Kramer, drawings and sculpture by Lloyd Lillie, and watercolors and drawings by Iso Papo.

The works of Chaet, Pineda, Swan and Weinberg are being shown through the courtesy of the Alpha Gallery, Boston, and the works of Kramer and Lillie through the courtesy of the Boris Mirski Gallery, Boston.

The Helen Bumpus Gallery is open during regular library hours: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday from 2-8; Thursday, 10-8; Saturday 10-6. The public is invited to meet the artists at the opening Sunday, March 16, from 3-5.

3/13/69 NEW EXHIBIT AT LIBRARY

An exhibition featuring seven contemporary artists begins Sunday, March 16, with a public opening from 3-5 in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of Duxbury Free Library.

The exhibition will include a watercolor by Bernard Chaet, a sculpture by Marianna Pineda, a painting by Barbara Swan, and a sculpture by Elbert Weinberg. Three members of the faculty of the Boston University School of Fine and Applied Arts will be represented in the Seven Artists Show: Jack Kramer with drawings and paintings, Lloyd Lillie with drawings and sculpture, and Iso Papo with watercolors and drawings.

WILL CONTINUE

The exhibition, which will continue through April 12, has been planned by Gay Youse, who is assisting Librarian Janice Neubauer and the art advisory committee with the gallery shows.

Contemporary Artists Show Work in Duxbury

The works of seven prominent artists will be displayed in the Helen Bumpus Gallery of the Duxbury Free Library, in an exhibition now through April 12.

The exhibition includes a watercolor by Bernard Chaet, a sculpture by Marianna Pineda, a portrait by Barbara Swan, and an Elbert Weinberg sculpture.

Three members of the faculty of the School of Fine and Applied Arts of Boston University will be featured also, with drawings and paintings by Jack Kramer, drawings and sculpture by Lloyd Lillie, and watercolors and drawings by Iso Papo.

The works of Chaet, Pineda, Swan and Weinberg are being shown through the courtesy of the Alpha Gallery, Boston, and the works of Kramer and Lillie through the courtesy of the Boris Mirski Gallery, Boston.